MR. BEAUMONT is watering flowers and grass with the hose.

He is dressed in khaki trousers, canvas shoes, old white shirt, straw hat and dark glasses.

CLOSE - MR. BEAUMONT

The sky and the neighborhood are reflected in his dark glasses.

He moves his false teeth around a little in his mouth, jutting out his chin in the process. He's thinking about who knows what.

He looks back down at his lawn.

CLOSEUP - WATER ON GRASS

The water hits the grass and mats it down.

WIDER - MR. BEAUMONT moves the hose over a bush and gets a kink in it.

Water stops coming out of the nozzle and there is a LOUD HISSING NOISE of water under pressure.

DR. GYNDE

Hello Jeffrey...

JEFFREY

Hello, Doctor Gynde... How is he?

DR. GYNDE

He's fighting hard... Jeffrey... it's very important that your father doesn't try to move... he's been immobilized... It would be very painful for him... sit close... you do the talking and moving. He knows you're here. He became very emotional. I don't think he likes the idea of you seeing him like this...

CONTINUED

Nurse Cindy goes to the bed. She begins to pull the curtains back revealing Mr. Beaumont.

NURSE CINDY

(smiling a big smile)

Mr. Beaumont! Your son is here to visit you...

Then we see Mr. Beaumont. He has numerous tubes and needles going into different parts of him. A stainless steel device holds his head perfectly still. Nurse Cindy picks up a tray and leaves.

JEFFREY

(shocked but concealing it)

Hi Dad.

MR. BEAUMONT

(speaking as plainly as possible, but sounds like mumbling)

Hey Jeff...

Jeffrey goes to him and puts out his hand to shake his father's hand but remembers his father cannot move. Jeffrey pats him on the shoulder.

JEFFREY

Looks like they've got you strapped in pretty good.

MR. BEAUMONT

(lips moving but hardly any sound) uh uh...

JEFFREY

Are you feeling okay?

MR. BEAUMONT

(more mumbling)

uh uh...

Tears well up in Mr. Beaumont's eyes. Before Jeffrey can stop him he reaches for Jeffrey's hand, then struggling against tremendous pain he manages to form words.

Good to see you, son...

JEFFREY

(holding back tears)

It's good to see you, Dad...

Jeffrey squeezes his father's hand

35

EXT. VACANT FIELD - DAY

35

Jeffrey is walking down a dirt road on his way home. He kicks up little clouds of dust as he walks. He has some time to think about things. He sees a green bottle in the distance. He gathers up a few more rocks and pitches them one by one at the bottle. He misses.

He looks for a few more good rocks to throw and while looking through some tall grass and weeds, he sees something strange.

He looks closer. It is a HUMAN EAR, covered with crawling ants.

Jeffrey immediately stands up and looks around. All he sees are houses — some laundry drying — a very peaceful scene. No one seems to be around — No one seems to be watching him.

He looks again at the ear.

We are so close we can hear the ants racing frantically around the ear. There is dried blood on part of it.

Jeffrey finds a brown paper bag and using a twig, he pushes the ear into it. Again, he stands up and looks around.

IN THE DISTANCE, a MAN goes into the back door of a house. Nothing more.

Jeffrey hurries off, carrying the bag with the ear in it.

CUT TO:

38

INT. ROOM 221 - POLICE STATION - DAY

38

Jeffrey enters Room 221 and sees the desk marked, "DETECTIVE J.D. WILLIAMS," however, the desk is empty. TWO MEN are talking at the end of the room; one of them comes toward Jeffrey.

CONTINUED

JEFFREY

Are you Detective Williams?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Yes.

JEFFREY

My name is Jeffrey Beaumont — I live near you... I believe you know my father, Tom Beaumont — Beaumont's Hardware Store?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Sure I do... I understand he's in the hospital... How is he?

JEFFREY

He's alright, I guess... I hope. They're doing tests, that's why I'm home from school. I was over at the hospital this morning and I was going home and in the field behind our neighborhood... there behind Vista, I found an ear.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(matter of factly)

You did? A human ear?

JEFFREY

Yeah... I've got it here in this bag. I thought I should bring it to you.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Yep, that's right. Let's take a look at it.

Jeffrey opens the bag and lets Detective Williams look inside.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(continuing)

That sure looks like a human ear, doesn't it?... Let's run it down to the Coroner's Office and see what they make of it. Then, I want you to show me exactly where you found it.

CUT TO:

Jeffrey, Detective Williams, and an OLD CORONER'S OFFICER are looking at the ear, which is sitting in a medical dish on a table.

CORONER'S OFFICER

The tests will take awhile. Meanwhile, we'll check the morgue records. I don't recall anything coming in minus an ear.

CONTINUED

39

CONTINUED:

39

The Coroner's Officer turns to Jeffrey.

CORONER'S OFFICER

(continuing)

Now if you'd found a jaw or let's say, a heart, or even an arm, we would assume that there was a corpse, however, a finger or an ear... the person may very well be alive somewhere.

JEFFREY

What can you tell about the person from the ear?

CORONER'S OFFICER

Well... when the tests are done, quite a lot ... Sex, blood type, whether or not the ear came off a dead person. Right now, I know what you know. It's a real human ear. The human was, or is, Caucasian.

....also....It looks like the ear was cut off with scissors.

40

EXT. VACANT FIELD - DAY

40

Jeffrey is out with Detective Williams and a CREW OF OFFICERS who have roped off the area and are doing a grid search.

A POLICE PHOTOGRAPHER is also there taking flash pictures all around the field, especially where Jeffrey has told them he found the ear.

Detective Williams takes Jeffrey aside.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

By the way, Jeffrey, this story isn't going to the press and I'm going to ask you to consider all you've heard strictly confidential. Do not discuss this business with anyone, but me, or other police personnel... Got it?

JEFFREY

Got it. Thanks for letting me in on as much as you did...

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Come on... I'll drive you home. It's on my way.

hospital for tests...

(very serious)

I miss you so much.

(smiling now)

What have you been up to?... Louise, I don't know... I've got to see how my father is

... It costs a fortune in that hospital...

When did he ask you to that?... Look. I can't stop you... Go ahead... Just go ahead

... I may never be back, go... ahead. Look
Louise, stop trying to explain everything.

Just do it... let's talk again in a couple of days or smethin', okay?... Yeah, I still love you. Goodbye Louise... Goodbye.

Jeffrey sits alone in his room, thinking things over.

SLOW DISSOLVE TO:

43 INT. CORCORNER'S OFFICE - NIGHT

AUNT BARBARA

Jeffrey walks along the dark streets. The same sombre MUSIC plays low and slow.

Some of the houses have a few lights on, some are dark. Some windows have a slow uneven blue flashing light, indicating the television is on inside.

Jeffrey continues walking through the night. In the trees, the shadows continuously re-arrange themselves in mysterious, sometimes frightening patterns.

46

EXT. WILLIAMS HOME - NIGHT

46

Jeffrey finally comes to the house he's been looking for.

He goes up the front walk. Now, at the last minute, he feels a little foolish and has second thoughts about knocking on the door.

46

Beaumont... Is Detective Williams in?

MRS. WILLIAMS

Oh, yes, Jeffrey... Come in... He'll be back any minute now. You're welcome to wait...
Is it urgent?

47

INT. WILLIAMS' LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

47

JEFFREY

I just wanted to ask him a few questions, that's all. Maybe I better go.

MRS. WILLIAMS

Really, he'll be home soon, would you like a cup of coffee?

JEFFREY

(thinks a bit)

Alright...

48

INT. WILLIAMS' KITCHEN - NIGHT

48

She leads him back to the kitchen where she has him sit at the kitchen table. She pours him a cup of coffee.

shame...

JEFFREY

Yeah, I know.

MRS. WILLIAMS

Would you like a piece of cake?

JEFFREY

No... No thank you.

MRS. WILLIAMS

It's a real good chocolate cake... Duncan
Hines' devil's food... real good.

JEFFREY

Yeah... okay.

They all say "Hi" to one another.

SANDY

Mike's gotta go...

Nice to meet you.

51

Detective Williams' study is filled with filing cabinets. The desk has two phones and is covered with papers and folders and a picture of Mrs. Williams and Sandy. The police radio is asking for Detective Williams as they enter.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(to Jeffrey)

Shut the door.

Detective Williams speaks through the radio while Jeffrey shuts the door.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(continuing; in radio)

Detective Williams here... yeah... Tell him to go to Sergeant Milton... yeah, copy.

(clicks off radio, turns to Jeffrey)

Well, Jeffrey, you found something which is very interesting to us... Very interesting. I know you must be curious to know more...

(scratches the middle of his back)

But... I'm afraid I'm going to have to ask you not only not to tell anyone about your find, but also not to ask more about the case. One day... when it's all sewed up, I'll let you know all the details. Right now, though ... I can't.

JEFFREY

I understand... I'm just real curious like you said...

Detective Williams)

I'm sorry Jeffrey. That's the way it has to be. Anyway... I'm sure you do understand...

Jeffrey studies Detective Williams' face as they walk back to the living room.

SANDY

Am I bothering you?

JEFFREY

No... You're not bothering me... You a senior?

SANDY

Yes.

JEFFREY

How is Central these days.

SANDY

Terrible... boring.

JEFFREY

What else is new?... right?

SANDY

Yeah... What are you doing now?

I'm home from school... My father's in the hospital.

SANDY

That's too bad...

JEFFREY

What do you know about the ear?... anything?

CONTINUED

SANDY

Didn't my father tell you not to talk about it?

(she smiles)

JEFFREY

Come on... you brought it up. Do you know anything?

SANDY

I don't really know much but bits and pieces ... I hear things... My room is right above my father's office. The ear... there's no corpse in the morgue missing an ear, and it did come off a living person. That's direct from the Coroner's Office. The person is unknown. There are a couple of cases I get mixed up on, but I think there are some people who were brought in for questioning on a murder case that could have something to do with the ear... I heard some of the same names.

JEFFREY

Do you know who was brought in for questioning?

SANDY

There were at least three, maybe four. But a name that keeps coming up is this woman who lives in an apartment building very close to your house and also close to the field where you found the ear... There's also a business man over by the Franklin factory district that was questioned... and a musician ... and some others.

JEFFREY

Were all these people questioned this afternoon?

SANDY

No... this has been going on for some time ... several months. About six months ago some parts of bodies were found down by the river. They were from people who were reported missing. They never found one complete body... only parts.

JEFFREY

The ear is from a missing person maybe?

SANDY

Maybe so.

JEFFREY

It's a strange world isn't it? Do you know what building the woman lives in?

SANDY

Yeah... It's close by... that's what's creepy. They've had her under surveillance for a couple of months, except I don't know what they've found out because my father isn't in charge of her.

JEFFREY

I guess you have to get back home soon?

SANDY

Not really, why?

(then she understands) .

You want to see the building?... Come on, I'll show you.

CUT TO:

55

EXT. LINCOLN STREET - NIGHT

55

Jeffrey and Sandy walk through the light of a street light. The street sign "LINCOLN ST" can be read. They walk into darkness and continue down to an apartment building on the right side of the street.

SANDY

(nodding toward building)

That's the building... She lives on the Seventh Floor... Don't stop to look too long ... the police are watching.

JEFFREY

Where are they?

SANDY

I don't know... you're not supposed to see them. They're supposed to see you.

They begin walking slowly back to Sandy's house.

JEFFREY

Did they find out anything when they questioned her?

SANDY

I don't know... like I said, she's not my father's case.

JEFFREY

Oh yeah... What about those other people?
... Anything?

SANDY

My father is watching the businessman...
The businessman had a partner who disappeared... left his whole business and family, his wife and two kids... They think he's been murdered.

JEFFREY

You really do hear a lot, don't you?

SANDY

Yeah, I guess so.
(they continue walking)
What are you going to do now that you're home?

JEFFREY

I have to help out in my father's hardware store... they're giving me sort of my own hours for a while... which is nice.

SANDY

Still, it must be kinda rough...

JEFFREY

It's not so bad... but it's bad enough... it's a lot worse for my father.
(Jeffrey points to a house)
I used to know a kid who lived there and who had the biggest tongue in the world...

Jeffrey and Sandy both laugh.

SANDY

What happened to him?

JEFFREY

I don't know... he moved away...

CUT TO:

56

EXT. NEIGHBORHOOD STREET - NIGHT

56

A LONG SHOT

Jeffrey and Sandy walking and talking, sometimes laughing in the distance, while the MUSIC theme, haunting yet warm, plays over.

57 EXT. WILLIAMS HOME - NIGHT

57

They arrive back at Sandy's home.

CLOSER ON JEFFREY AND SANDY

in front of Sandy's home.

SANDY

I've gotta go in.

JEFFREY

Thanks for the tour... It was nice talking to you.

Sandy just looks at him shyly before she turns to go up the front walk.

JEFFREY

(continuing)

I guess I'll see you sometime...

SANDY

I guess so... like you said... It's a strange world.

JEFFREY

(smiles)

Yeah... Good bye.

Jeffrey watches as Sandy goes inside her house. He watches her house for a moment and sees her cross the living room. He turns and walks away.

Again, the MYSTERIOUS CHORDS OF MUSIC swell up as Jeffrey walks through the night.

CUT TO:

58 INT. BEALMONT'S HARDWARE STORE - DAY

58

Jeffrey is poking around in the back room. He picks up some bug spraying devices. He yells out to an old black man who works in the store.

JEFFREY

Hey, Ed, okay if I borrow these bug spraying rigs later on?

Ed peers into the back room. Spots Jeffrey.

ED

Listen Bud... If you need to spray for bugs they're yours. It causes me no pain.

JEFFREY

Okidoke Ed. Thanks.

CUT TO:

59 EXT. BEAUMONT'S HARDWARE STORE - DAY

60 INT. BEAUMONT'S CAR - DAY

60

Jeffrey driving. He looks at his watch. It is 3:30.

61 EXT. CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL - DAY

61

Jeffrey is parked across the street from the school. High school kids are pouring out the front door. In a moment he sees Sandy come out with two or three other girls. They walk down the sidewalk away from Jeffrey.

He starts the car and slowly follows them to the corner, where he pulls up alongside of them... very close. Sandy suddenly recognizes him.

JEFFREY

You hungry or thirsty, or both?

SANDY

(taken aback)

I don't know.

JEFFREY

I'd like to talk to you about something...

SANDY

Just a minute... pull over and wait a minute.

Sandy pulls her girlfriends away from Jeffrey's car and says something to them. There is some whispering and giggling and then,

SANDY

(to the girls)

Please, don't say anything to Mike... promise?

The girls promise. Sandy goes around and gets in the car.

JEFFREY

I don't want to cause any trouble.

SANDY

I'm here, aren't I?

practice in the afternoon?

SANDY
Ooooo, you are smart... Just don't get too smart.

CUT TO:

62 INT. DINER - DAY

62

Jeffrey and Sandy are sitting in a booth. Jeffrey's grilled cheese on white bread and a coke have just arrived along with Sandy's coke.

SANDY
Alright, now tell me... What is it?

JEFFREY
There are opportunities in life for gaining knowledge and experience... sometimes, in some cases... it's necessary to take a risk.
I got to thinking... I'll bet a person could learn a lot by getting into that woman's apartment... you know... sneak in and hide and observe.

SANDY
You said it was a strange world... and you're the strangest part of it... Are you crazy... she is possibly involved in murder... This gives me the creeps.

JEFFREY
Settle down... I have a plan which I think will work. There is very little for you to do, but I do need your help.
...Aren't you curious about my plan?

SANDY (thinking and intrigued, plus she is beginning to like Jeffrey)
It wouldn't hurt to hear the plan, I guess.

JEFFREY
(getting excited)
Alright... the first thing is to get into her apartment and open a window that I could crawl into later.

SANDY
Now, how are you going to do that?

62

CONTINUED:

62

JEFFREY

Right out in the car I happen to have some old overalls and a bug spraying rig... I will go to her apartment and be the pest control man... I will spray her apartment. After a few minutes you will knock on her door, drawing her attention away from me and I will then jimmy a window.

SANDY

What will I say when she comes to the door?

JEFFREY

You will be a Jehovah's Witness. I have a few "Awake" magazines for you... You don't have to keep her very long... a few seconds is all I'll need. Whatiya think?

SANDY

I don't know... it sounds like a good daydream, ... but actually doing it is too weird... too dangerous.

JEFFREY

Let's just try the first part... If that goes well, we'll see about the rest. No one will suspect us, because no one would believe two people like us would be crazy enough to do something like this.

SANDY

You've got a point there...

CUT TO:

63

INT. BEALMONTS' CAR/LINCOLN STREET - DAY

63

Jeffrey and Sandy are in the car. Jeffrey is struggling to put on the old overalls.

JEFFREY

Now... we'll walk over so there's no license plates and you give me at least three minutes. I can stall if it's more, but I need time to find a good window ... alright?

SANDY

Alright.

JEFFREY

Let's go...

64 EXT. LINCOLN STREET - DAY

6

They get out of the car. Sandy has the "Awake" magazines.

JEFFREY

Okay, I'm going ahead... Wait a minute, what's her name?

SANDY

Oh brother... Dorothy Vallens, Seventh Floor. Look on the mailbox for her number, bright boy.

JEFFREY

Thanks... Dorothy Vallens... Okay... good luck ... three minutes, no sooner.

SANDY

Alright... Good luck, yourself.

Jeffrey takes off in the direction of the apartment building.

CUT TO:

65 EXT. APARTMENT BUILDING - DAY

Jeffrey walks up the front steps and goes in the double outer doors.

66 INT. LOBBY - APARTMENT BUILDING - DAY

Jeffrey goes into the lobby.

CUT TO:

67 INT. STAIRWAY - APARTMENT BUILDING - DAY

67

Jeffrey climbs the stairs. An OLD LADY is making her way down the stairs. She sees Jeffrey and his rig.

OLD LADY

Well, it's about time you came.

Jeffrey forces a smile at her and after she's gone.

JEFFREY

(to himself)

That's a good sign.

He keeps climbing. He arrives at the Seventh Floor...

CONTINUED:

67

... and finds Number 710. He knocks and waits. He looks around... the hallway is empty.

DOROTHY VALLENS opens the door. She is a very beautiful woman in her late thirties. She has a beautiful full figure, dark eyes, black thick wavy hair. Full red lips. Right now, however, she looks a bit tired and a bit frumpy in an old terrycloth robe.

DOROTHY

Yes? What is it?

JEFFREY

Pest control... gotta do your apartment...

DOROTHY

Oh God, that stuff stinks.

JEFFREY

(as he goes in)

Nope... it's new stuff... no smell.

DOROTHY

Oh yeah, that's good.

68

INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - DAY

68

Jeffrey goes all around the baseboards, spraying. All the while, he's getting a good look at the apartment.

There is a window above the kitchen sink out to the fire escape. Jeffrey looks around to see what Dorothy is doing and she is watching him spraying. The apartment is smaller than he thought, so he sprays the kitchen very slowly and makes believe the sprayer is jammed.

Suddenly, there is a knocking at the door.

DOROTHY

What is this... Grand Central Station?

She opens the door. Jeffrey looks... It's not Sandy. A MAN, with a yellow sports coat, is standing there. Jeffrey begins to sweat, because the Man looked around Dorothy to see him. Dorothy says something to the Man which Jeffrey cannot hear.

The next time Jeffrey looks up, the Man is gone. The whole thing looks to be turning out badly when Jeffrey spots a key on the counter. On a long shot, he steals it just as the front door shuts. He wraps things up and gets out.

JEFFREY

(to Dorothy)

That oughta do it...

DOROTHY

Yeah.

69 INT. STAIRWAY - APARTMENT BUILDING - DAY

69

Jeffrey leaves. Out on the stairs, he finds Sandy with her "Awake" magazines.

SANDY

Are you alright?

JEFFREY

Yeah... let's get outa here... What happened?

As they go downstairs,

SANDY

I was just about to go to the door, when that man did my job for me. Was it alright?

JEFFREY

Yes and no... Did you recognize him?

SANDY

No... I only saw his back. He went down another stairwell at the end of the hall.

JEFFREY

I didn't get a good look at him either, but he sure looked at me. I didn't have time to get to a window, but I found this key.
(he shows it to her)
Pretty nifty, huh?

SANDY

Yeah, if it opens the door.

JEFFREY

Yeah...

70 INT. LOBBY - APARTMENT BUILDING - DAY

70

They get to the door of the apartment building.

JEFFREY

You go first.

71 EXT. LINCOLN STREET - DAY

71

They leave the building separately. When Jeffrey gets to the car, Sandy isn't there. He looks all around. He starts the car and drives off.

There, up ahead, he spots her. He pulls over and she gets in.

71

SANDY

So... what's next?

JEFFREY

Pretty clever... Are you game for more?

SANDY

I owe you... since I goofed up this one.

JEFFREY

You didn't goof it up, but... you still owe me one... I want to sneak in tonight. It's Friday... do you have a date tonight?

SANDY

Yes... I do...

JEFFREY

Well, it's Friday night and you're a beautiful girl... I guess you would have a date... that does that.

72 INT. BEALMONT'S CAR/WILLIAMS HOME - DAY

72

Jeffrey is driving Sandy home.

SANDY

You really want to do this, don't you?

JEFFREY

I don't want you to get involved, really, I mean, I do, but if something went wrong I mean, like you said, they may be involved in murder.

They pull up in front of Sandy's house.

SANDY

(making up her mind — against her better judgment)

I'll tell Mike I'm sick. There's a game tonight anyway and he'll never miss me. Afterwards he can go out with the guys. Just so the record is kept straight though, I love Mike... What do you want me to do?

JEFFREY

(studies her a moment, then)

First of all, we'll have a nice dinner... Try to find out where Dorothy sings.

SANDY

Yeah, but don't pick me up... my father may think it's strange... I'll walk over to your house. I'll be there at eight o'clock. Okay?

JEFFREY

Okay. You better get out before someone sees us.

Sandy gets out of the car and without turning around walks into her house. Jeffrey calls out after her.

JEFFREY

See ya!

INSERT T.V. SCREEN

The television is on. Some crime show is playing, but the SOUND is very low.

The FAMILY DOCTOR is over and is giving Mrs. Beaumont an injection of medicine. Aunt Barbara is sitting nearby.

DR. GYNDE

That will take care of you, Frances, for another week. I don't want you to overdo things either. Take it very easy.

AUNT BARBARA

I'll see to it, Bill.

DR. GYNDE

Good.

MRS. BEAUMONT

I feel fine.

DR. GYNDE

That's not the point... You're under a great deal of stress... don't overdo it... don't be foolish.

Jeffrey points to his head and makes a circular "crazy" gesture.
They all laugh, except Aunt Barbara.

AUNT BARBARA

(continuing)

We'll see who stays in my will.

They laugh again.

JEFFREY

(to his mother)

Can I use the car tonight?

MRS. BEALMONT

Of course, Jeffrey.

They say their goodnights.

74

INT. BEALMONTS' CAR - NIGHT

74

Jeffrey and Sandy are looking at each other. Jeffrey turns back to driving.

Sandy watches Jeffrey drive then she turns and watches the stores and shops go by.

When she is turned away, Jeffrey turns and looks at her. Sandy is thinking.

SANDY

What's the plan?

JEFFREY

First of all, we're going to the Slow Club to see Dorothy Vallens. We'll watch her for awhile. I'd like to hear her sing anyway, and then also we'll know she is there and not in her apartment.

SANDY

Brilliant.

Good evening... two?

JEFFREY

Yeah... Could we get a small table in the

SLEAZY MAITRE D'

Surely, come this way.

They follow him and are seated.

MAITRE D'

May I get you something to drink?

JEFFREY

I'd like an ice-cold Heineken.

SANDY

(she might as well)

That sounds good.

JEFFREY

Two.

MAITRE D'

Two Heinekens, thank you.

The Maitre d' leaves.

On stage a FAT COMIC is telling jokes. The jokes are tailored for this kind of working-class crowd. The people are laughing. The place is almost full. Jeffrey and Sandy are taking it all in.

That guy was filled with information.

They pour their beers.

JEFFREY

(raising his glass)

Here's to... an interesting experience...

SANDY

I'll drink to that.

They drink.

DISSOLVE TO:

INT. "SLOW CLUB" - NIGHT

77

Later. Jeffrey and Sandy have just finished dinner. The M.C. is arranging a floral art deco microphone and a SAXAPHONE PLAYER, a BASS PLAYER, and a DRUMMER are on stage.

M.C.

(very low key)

Ladies and gentlemen... The Blue Lady...
Miss Dorothy Vallens.

There is quite a round of applause, even though most people continue laughing, talking, and drinking. Dorothy Vallens comes out on stage.

She smiles. The house lights are still up. As she sings the first lines of "BLUE MOON" the house lights go down and a blue spot light comes up on her as she sings the word, "Blue." This is a very sexy and slow version of the song.

During the song, Jeffrey and Sandy look at one another with the thought that this is the woman whose apartment they are about to break into.

Jeffrey and Sandy leave as Dorothy starts her next song, "BLUE VELVET." They hear the first few lines before they get out the door.

78 EXT. "SLOW CLUB" - NIGHT

They hurry to the car, get in, and drive off.

80 INT. BEALMONTS' CAR/LINCOLN STREET - NIGHT

80

They turn into the street where Dorothy Vallens lives and glide to a stop close to the building. Jeffrey cuts the engine.

It is very quiet. Both are looking around to see if anyone is out or watching. Jeffrey tries to look up out the front windshield to the Seventh Floor. It is dark. Sandy moves. Every tiny sound is heard. Sandy looks at Jeffrey for some time, then back at the building.

SANDY

Jeffrey, I don't think you ought to do it.

JEFFREY

Why not?

SANDY

It's crazy and dangerous... My God... I shouldn't have told you.

JEFFREY

It'll be okay... I don't think you should wait out here though... I think you should go home. Can you drive this car?

SANDY

Yeah... but...

JEFFREY

Leave it in front of your house for me... okay?

SANDY

O.K.

JEFFREY

Could you wait a little while... this key may not fit.

CONTINUED

SANDY

JEFFREY

I'm going in, Sandy... I'll see you tomorrow and tell you how it went.

SANDY

I... I don't want to see you tomorrow... Mike's coming over.

JEFFREY

Oh, okay... can I call?

SANDY

Okay... yeah, call.

JEFFREY

Look... it can wait til Sunday.

SANDY

Call tomorrow... It's okay. Good luck. I hope you can sneak out okay. You're going to wait until she's asleep?

JEFFREY

Yeah...

SANDY

I'm going to wait here until she comes.

JEFFREY

Are you sure?

SANDY

I'll honk four times so you'll hear it and know she's on her way up. Okay?

Jeffrey nods.

JEFFREY

Okay... thanks.

SANDY

I don't know if you're a detective or a pervert.

JEFFREY

That's for me to know and for you to find out... I'll see you... I mean call you... okay?

CUT TO:

81 INT. STAIRWAY - APARTMENT BUILDING - NIGHT

Jeffrey hurries up the stairs to the Seventh Floor.

SOMEONE comes out of an apartment just as Jeffrey gets to the Seventh Floor.

He goes up another flight of stairs to the Eighth Floor and waits until the man goes downstairs.

Jeffrey then goes back to the Seventh Floor and goes to Door 710. He takes out the key and looks around... No one. He inserts the key. It fits. He turns it. The door opens.

82 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

82

He quickly enters the very dark apartment and shuts the door. It takes a moment for his eyes to adjust to the darkness. Soon he finds his way around. He decides on the closet to hide in. However before he goes in to the closet he slowly surveys the apartment as well as he can in the darkness. He goes down the hallway to the back bedroom. Across the hallway he opens another door and is surprised to find an empty child's room. In the child's room he sees a small pointed hat with a propeller on top. The kind that plays music when the propeller turns. The hat is sitting silently on the bed post. He quietly closes the door. He returns to the closet. Once inside, he checks out how much he can see. Through the slats he has a view of half the apartment. This is where he will stay. He moves around some to relax. He takes several deep breaths. He looks at his watch. It says "10:17."

83 INT. BEALMONTS' CAR/LINCOLN STREET - NIGHT

83

Sandy sits in the car, carefully watching the apartment building and street.

84 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

89 INT. BEAUMONTS' CAR/LINCOLN STREET - NIGHT

89

Sandy begins to honk the horn.

90 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

90

Unable to hear the warning horn, Jeffrey nonchalantly leaves the bathroom as the tank is still filling.

SUDDENLY, he hears something... a key going in the door. He bolts toward the closet. He flies inside it and is swinging the door shut as the front door opens.

Just as suddenly, the toilet tank gets full and the water shuts off — SILENCE, except for Dorothy Vallens at the front door.

DOROTHY (V.O.)

(we're watching Jeffrey trying to the dark closet)

Thanks Jimmy, see you tomorrow... You want a drink, or something?

JIMMY (V.O.)

I better get back... thanks anyway.

DOROTHY

Goodnight.

JIMMY

Goodnight now.

The front door shuts and the living room lights go on. Jeffrey can see Dorothy come toward him. She walks RIGHT UP, almost to his face, when the phone RINGS.

She turns immediately and goes to answer it. Jeffrey almost passes out... he thought he'd had it. He overhears.

DOROTHY

(on phone)

Hello... yes... yes sir, Frank... Let me talk to him... Please Frank, sir... I like to sing Blue Velvet... Don? It's okay...
Don't worry... Don??... can you hear me? Is little Donny OK? Is he there? Don? You mean Meadow Lane? Frank?! What's the matter with him? I know... When? Okay. In an hour... I'll be sweet... Mamma loves you... Okay Frank, sir.

She hangs up the phone hard and puts her head in her hands.

DOROTHY

(to herself)

Frank, you son of a bitch!

She goes and sits down and starts chewing a fingernail. She nervously gets up again and looks at a framed photograph for a moment then hides the photograph under a pillow on the couch. She puts on a record, "FOR YOUR PRECIOUS LOVE." She sits back down and chews her nail again, listening to the MUSIC; she starts to cry. She stops herself and takes the record off. She starts taking off her stocking. She then takes off her dress.

Underneath, she has on a bra and panties. She crosses the living room, goes down the hallway into the bathroom.

Jeffrey's face. He sees Dorothy — in a towel — come toward him again. He quickly moves back into the closet as far as he can.

She opens the door, reaches in and gets a blue velvet robe. She doesn't see Jeffrey even though he isn't well hidden. She closes the door. It CLICKS shut.

Jeffrey is in almost total darkness. He listens. He can HEAR WALKING around, then silence. He hears the kitchen sink WATER RUNNING. ~~She is in the kitchen sink.~~

He HEARS her WALKING AGAIN. Now he can see her.

She sits down on her bed. She looks up. Just as Jeffrey shifts his weight, She looks at the closet strangely, but then calmly picks up a book and thumbs through it. She slowly gets up.

Jeffrey doesn't know what is up. He looks but she walks out of view.

SUDDENLY, he hears a DRAWER OPEN, and just as suddenly, the CLOSET DOOR FLIES OPEN, and there she is with a pistol pointed right at him. When she realizes that SOMEONE IS REALLY THERE, she SCREAMS ONCE, very loud.

DOROTHY

(crazy scream, then)

GET OUT OF THERE!! GET OUT!! Put your hands up, on your head. GO ON!! Get down on your knees — DO IT!! What are you doing? Who are you? What's your name?... WHAT'S YOUR NAME?

JEFFREY

Jeffrey.

DOROTHY

JEFFREY

It was... an experiment. Just to see if I could do it.

DOROTHY

An experiment? Hey, I've seen you before.

JEFFREY

I sprayed your apartment. I took your key. I really didn't mean to do anything but see you.

DOROTHY

Tell me what you saw tonight... TELL ME.

DOROTHY

The phone... What did you hear on the phone ... Tell me... Word for word.

JEFFREY

(trying to remember)

You said hello... to Frank... You wanted to talk to someone?... Don?... and little Donny... You said something about Mamma loves you... You called Frank "sir," and you said something about a Meadow Lane... something in an hour ... I don't remember any more.

Dorothy stares at Jeffrey studying him for some time thinking.

DOROTHY

That's right... That's what I said... You have a good memory... Then what?

CONTINUED

JEFFREY

Well...

DOROTHY

THEN WHAT?

JEFFREY

Then you got undressed.

DOROTHY

How many times have you sneaked into girls' apartments and watched them undress?

JEFFREY

(quietly; feeling guilty)

Never before this.

DOROTHY

How'd you like it if someone sneaked into your house and watched you.

(gets an idea)

Get undressed... I want to see you.

JEFFREY

No... Come on...

DOROTHY

NO, you come on. Take off your pants. I want to see you...

JEFFREY

Look... I'm sorry... Just let me leave.

DOROTHY

No way...

Dorothy moves to the kitchen counter and gets a knife. She goes to Jeffrey. Now she has a knife and a gun. He's scared.

DOROTHY

Get undressed... I want to see you.

Jeffrey begins to undress. First he takes off his shoes and socks. Then his shirt. He undoes his belt and unzips his pants and takes them off. Now he is only in his underwear.

DOROTHY

STAND UP...

He does.

DOROTHY

(continuing)

Come closer.

CONTINUED

Dorothy has a strange look on her face. She reaches out and pulls Jeffrey's underpants down to his knees. She looks at him.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

What do you want from me?

JEFFREY

(quietly, getting very hot)

I ... I don't know.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

What do you want?

Dorothy is getting very DREAMY and begins to talk in a childlike voice. She opens her robe and pulls Jeffrey to her breasts.

DOROTHY

Don't move...don't look at me.

Jeffrey's eyes close with nervous ecstasy as Dorothy begins touching him.

DOROTHY

Do you like that?

JEFFREY

Yes...

He tries to touch her.

DOROTHY

Don't move or I'll kill you...

She looks at him.

DOROTHY

(continuing)

Do you like talk like that?

JEFFREY

No...

DOROTHY

Lie down on the bed.

He lies down. He looks frightened.

There's a KNOCK, KNOCK on the door. Dorothy looks VERY frightened. She quickly moves a finger to her lips in a "quiet" sign and whispers to Jeffrey.

CONTINUED

DOROTHY

(whispers, frantic)

Shut up... Hurry! Go in the closet... Don't say anything or you'll get killed... I mean it.

KNOCKING is heard louder at the door. Jeffrey picks up all his clothes and gets in the closet. He's naked and hiding in the closet. Dorothy closes her robe and glides to the front door. She opens it.

Jeffrey sees FRANK come in.

Frank is medium height and stocky with a buzz hair cut. He is wearing a tight blue t-shirt and an old black sports jacket. He's got on a pair of blue jeans and boots. He has a raw, mean sexuality — a "bomb about to go off" — presence.

He comes into the room slowly, always looking at Dorothy. He sits on the couch.

DOROTHY

Hello, baby...

FRANK

(annoyed, condescending)

Shut up... It's daddy... shithead.

DOROTHY

Hello, daddy.

FRANK

(can't-you-remember-anything attitude)

... my bourbon...

Dorothy goes into the kitchen to get Frank his drink. As she passes the closet, Jeffrey can see the fear in her face.

She returns with a small glass of bourbon and hands it to Frank. Frank sips on it.

FRANK

... sit down.. get your chair...

Dorothy brings a small chair over from the wall and sits down. She adjusts her robe.

FRANK

(studying her)

... spread your legs.

Dorothy slowly spreads her legs. She can see Jeffrey staring out of the darkness of the closet at her.

CONTINUED

FRANK wider...

She opens her legs wider. Frank looks at her crotch and drinks his bourbon. He stares at the floor for a moment, then slowly looks back at Dorothy, her body — her crotch.

Dorothy looks up at the ceiling, waiting. Frank suddenly reaches to his belt, where he has a small cannister and a mask. He opens a valve on the cannister and places the mask over his nose and mouth. The cannister is filled with helium, which makes Frank's voice very high and strange sounding. The result is frightening.

FRANK

(high voice)

... MAMMY...

Dorothy jumps. She keeps looking at the ceiling.

FRANK

(continuing, with high voice)

... MAMMY!...

DOROTHY

(frightened)

... mammy's here...

FRANK

(high voice)

Baby wants to fuck...

Then, Frank's voice goes normal.

FRANK

(normal voice, but loud — like an army order to himself)

GET READY TO FUCK!

Frank goes to Dorothy and kneels down in front of her. He takes one more gasp of helium.

FRANK

(high voice)

Baby wants blue velvet.

Dorothy opens her robe and gives a part of the robe to Frank.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

Okay.

CONTINUED

Frank slowly moves his mouth to the robe and runs his lips slowly along the texture of the velvet. His hands rub the velvet and feel Dorothy's body underneath. His hands start feeling her breasts as he sucks and bites the velvet robe.

Dorothy is very frightened but she is getting hot in spite of her fear. Then Frank, in a sort of sickening way, pulls Dorothy down to the rug. He warns her.

FRANK

Don't look at me!

He begins stuffing part of the robe into her mouth. Then, he pushes her arms back and she keeps them back, letting Frank have his way. Frank sucks and bites the velvet coming out of her mouth, while he pinches and feels her breasts in a strange, compulsive, timidly sickening way. Dorothy is moaning. Frank is breathing very heavily. He feels her crotch.

FRANK

Don't look at me!!!

(heavy breathing)

Daddy's home...

He starts stuffing the robe in his mouth now and he gets on top of Dorothy. He starts humping her and pulling her nude body up to him. Faster and faster, then he has a climax in his pants. Dorothy's head is falling back. She can see Jeffrey blurred in the distance — in the closet. Cautiously, she looks sideways at Frank.

FRANK

(screaming)

Don't look at me!!!

He slugs her in the face. His nose is running and he's stifling sobs from deep within him. On his hands and knees, he moves away. The robe pulls out of his mouth. His breathing is even heavier now. He stands and begins to move around the apartment. He goes to a wall, turns off the lights, then turns and walks into the bathroom, all the while breathing big, heavy breaths, trying to stop the crying. Dorothy moans softly.

It gets very quiet and still for a moment. Then, Jeffrey hears Frank with his high helium voice talking to himself in the bathroom. The high, strange sound reverberates in the distance. Jeffrey can't make it out — soon, he hears Frank's high laughing. Frank comes back into the living room. The mask is around his face. All his breathing — every sound is high ... He laughs a little and crosses the darkened room to the door.

FRANK

Stay alive baby... See you next Christmas!

CONTINUED

Frank leaves and shuts the door. The apartment is silent except for Dorothy's moans.

Jeffrey is stunned. He doesn't move. He watches Dorothy in the half-light. She rolls over and starts crying. The crying is deep and genuine.

Slowly, Jeffrey emerges from the closet and goes to her. He bends down and touches her. She flinches and turns to see him. She turns back sobbing. He tries to get her up.

JEFFREY

Why don't you come lie down... Come on, I'll help you.

She struggles up with Jeffrey's help and he takes her over to the bed. She falls down on her side, turned toward the wall. He covers her with the sheet.

DOROTHY

Don't.

(referring to the sheet)

I don't like that. What do you want?

JEFFREY

Nothing... Are you alright?

DOROTHY

Sure I'm alright...

(she starts crying again)

JEFFREY

I'll go then.

He starts to put on his underwear. They're inside out. He tries to turn them around.

DOROTHY

Don?

JEFFREY

No...

DOROTHY

Don... Hold me... I'm scared... Hold me... Please.

Jeffrey turns to her. He studies her. He reaches out and takes her shoulders. He moves down and holds her.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

Thank you... honey...

CONTINUED

JEFFREY

(whispering)

It's okay... It's okay.

They lie together for a long silent moment.

DOROTHY

Do you like the way I feel?

JEFFREY

(hesitates)

Yes.

DOROTHY

See my breasts? ... See?

Jeffrey looks.

JEFFREY

Yes.

DOROTHY

See my nipples?

JEFFREY

Yes.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

You can kiss them if you want... Feel them
... They're getting hard.

Jeffrey starts to move closer. Dorothy closes her eyes.

DOROTHY

(continuing)

Go ahead... I don't mind.

Jeffrey can't help himself. He licks and sucks her nipples and feels her breasts. They both are getting very hot.

DOROTHY

Feel me.

Jeffrey is all over her now. Dorothy suddenly seems to recognize him.

DOROTHY

You can hit me, if you want to.

JEFFREY

No... please... I won't.

Dorothy arches back and whining she throws her head back hard against the wall.

JEFFREY

Stop it!

She moves and won't let him feel her any more. She holds his hands away.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

Do you like me?

JEFFREY

(whispers too)

Yes, I like you.

DOROTHY

(whispering)

You can be my special friend and come and put that in me...

They start making love. Suddenly, Dorothy starts crying.

JEFFREY

What's the matter?

Suddenly Dorothy slaps Jeffrey in the face... very hard.

DOROTHY

Get off me.

Jeffrey gets off her, pressing his hand to his face. Dorothy goes into the bathroom crying all the way. Jeffrey sits, confused.

Suddenly Jeffrey hears a horrible scream from Dorothy. A true scream of horror. He rushes into the bathroom to see what is wrong.

92

INT. DOROTHY'S BATHROOM - NIGHT

92

She is just flushing something down the toilet. The water SOUND rushes. He turns to her. She is trembling and in a state of shock.

DOROTHY

I made it go down the toilet.

JEFFREY

What?

He looks in the swirling water... It looks like an ear revolving around and around then whatever it is disappears.

DOROTHY

I made it go down the toilet.

92

Jeffrey looks up... he sees written with a bar of soap the words "look down" on the mirror.

He looks down into the sink. At the bottom he sees a small clot of blood and a smear of fresher blood.

Jeffrey suddenly remembers mentally Frank's high helium voice reverberating in the bathroom.

95 INT. DOROTHY'S BATHROOM - NIGHT

95

JEFFREY

(inner voice)

Next Christmas... Is he Santa Claus who has left a present for Dorothy? What was it? An ear? Another ear?!!

(out loud, to Dorothy)

What was it?

DOROTHY

(strangely - extremely frightened now that Jeffrey may have left it)
Do you know?

JEFFREY

No...

DOROTHY

(breathing heavily, strangely)
You don't?

JEFFREY

No... What is happening?

DOROTHY

Maybe you don't know... I know you though... You're Jeffrey Beaumont and I know where you live and I know ways to get you and I know ways to kill you.

CONTINUED

JEFFREY

Please don't talk like that... You're upset... I'm not helping you... I'm sorry for what I did... I'd better go.

DOROTHY

Go then... I can't let you put it in me now but I want you... I like you...

JEFFREY

Then don't talk about killing...

DOROTHY

Did I say that?... I didn't mean it... or did I?

(laughs)

Sometimes I think it would be fun.

(strange smile)

Go ahead, you better leave now. I can't open myself to you now. I'll tell you a secret...

(she leans close)

I want to die.

JEFFREY

Don't say that.

DOROTHY

It's a secret so don't tell anyone... Some day I'll show you where. I've gotta go to sleep now.

JEFFREY

(frightened by her craziness)

O.K.

He takes another look at the blood in the bottom of the sink. He takes another look at the beautiful dark troubled eyes of Dorothy Vallens, and turns, goes through the hall to the living room. He crosses slowly to the door, suddenly he turns back and enters the hallway going down to the bathroom. He stops and looks at Dorothy who is turned away from him. She stares into the sink. Jeffrey notices that a square of fabric has been cut from the bottom of her blue velvet robe.

JEFFREY

I'm leaving now.

She is whispering something to herself.

DOROTHY

(very faint whisper)

Help me... help me... please help me.

Jeffrey doesn't know what he can do.

96

INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

96

Jeffrey turns back, goes through the living room. He looks around and sees the empty bourbon glass of Frank's. Suddenly he remembers the photograph that Dorothy hid. He picks up the pillow and sees a picture of a smiling man and a small boy standing next to him wearing a pointed hat with a propeller. He turns the photo over and finds an old marriage license. It reads: Dorothy Vallens to Don, WATTS.

JEFFREY (V.O.)

Don... Oh my God...

He hides the photo again. He sees Dorothy's telephone. He memorizes the number - moving his lips with each digit. He goes to the front door and opens it quietly.

He walks along taking in deep cleansing breaths. He looks at his watch. 2:30. He feels so confused, so exhilarated, so uneasy. He secretly worries about what he's gotten into.

99

INT. BEALMONT'S LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

99

Jeffrey enters the house. THE CAMERA RUSHES along the rug in the dark to a foot. The lights come on. PAN UP the leg to Mrs. Beaumont waiting in a chair, staring.

JEFFREY

(startled)

God... you scared me.

MRS. BEALMONT

Is something wrong? What's happened to your face?

JEFFREY

Nothing... I'm fine.

(pause)

MARRIED?! Good night! Louise! Are you kidding?

(long pause)

Well, Louise, I wish you a lot of luck and if things don't work out, I think you should go into comedy.

Jeffrey hangs up the phone hard. He shakes his head.

101 INT. BEAUMONT'S HARDWARE STORE - DAY

101

Jeffrey's drinking a cup of coffee behind the counter in the store. He thinks. He takes another drink of coffee and sets the cup down. He clasps his hands behind his back and begins pacing up and down.

JEFFREY

(to himself, out loud)

How can I help her? I can't tell her to go to Detective Williams... She'll think I'm a policeman... She has my address... She can go there... if she has to... I'll tell her... and she thinks I'm Don... her husband? Where the hell is Don? — maybe he died...

Jeffrey dials the phone.

JEFFREY

Hello?... Mrs. Williams?... This is Jeffrey Beaumont... Fine. Okay... Is Sandy there? Okay... Hi Sandy... Can you talk? He is?... Well, I guess I'll talk to you later on... It went okay. I'll tell you about it... Dinner?... Tomorrow night? Seven o'clock, yeah, sounds good... Okay... he's still in the hospital... Okay, yeah... See you tomorrow... thanks.

The parking lot is half-full. A strong wind is blowing trash around. Jeffrey parks his car...

JEFFREY

A table in back, please.

MAITRE D'

Certainly.

Dorothy is singing her opening song as the Maitre d' seats Jeffrey.

JEFFREY

I'll have an ice-cold Heineken.

MAITRE D'

One Heineken, certainly, sir.

Jeffrey surveys the place after the Maitre d' leaves. It is very dark and smokey inside. He has trouble seeing, but suddenly he spots Frank sitting with some other GUYS watching Dorothy sing. They are sitting two tables away.

Frank is totally captivated by Dorothy's singing and is very serious-looking. He looks right up to her eyes. In his hand he works a small piece of blue velvet cloth with his fingers. Again her first number, "BLUE MOON," segues into "BLUE VELVET." This song she sings mainly to Frank. When it is over Frank continues watching Dorothy and everyone else applauds loudly.

Jeffrey drinks up his Heineken and goes back outside.

105 EXT. "SLOW CLUB" - NIGHT

Traffic roars past Jeffrey and in the distance several people exit the SLOW CLUB. Among them are Frank and his friends. They get into a black Ford Fairlane and drive out of the parking lot -- down the highway. Jeffrey starts his engine and moves out after them. He has to gun the car up to sixty-five to catch up with them.

107 EXT. CITY STREETS - NIGHT

107

The mysterious MUSIC plays.

He follows them to an intersection where they turn off to the right. He waits at a light right behind them. Inside they are lighting cigarettes. The light turns green and Frank takes off. Jeffrey follows them through a dark area down by the docks. He follows them up a narrow street through dark factories.

108 EXT. FRONT STREET - NIGHT

108

Dark, low MUSIC now.

Up ahead, Frank parks his car. Jeffrey quickly pulls over and kills his lights and engine. He watches Frank and his friends enter an old apartment building next to a bookbinding factory. They disappear within. The electric lines above buzz loudly.

Jeffrey gets out of his car and walks up the deserted street. He reaches Frank's car which is making popping and clicking NOISES as its cools down. He looks at the license plates -- walks a few paces ahead and then writes it down in his notebook. He continues on to the apartment building.

109 INT. LOBBY - FRANK'S BUILDING - NIGHT

109

Inside he looks at the names on the mailboxes. He sees a name -- Frank Booth. The name gives him the chills. The apartment number is 26.

In the distance, he hears footsteps. He quickly leaves...

110 EXT. FRONT STREET - NIGHT

JEFFREY

(thinking out loud)

I shouldn't go in... I shouldn't... but I'm too curious... and I have to try to help her.

He then gets out of his car as the wind is building...

Dorothy LOOKS BAD.

JEFFREY

Hi... can I come in?

DOROTHY

(looking around the hallway)
Yeah... hurry up though.

They go inside.

118 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

Are you alright?

Dorothy breaks down crying.

DOROTHY

No... I'm not...

Jeffrey goes to her.

DOROTHY

Why are you here... whatiya want?

JEFFREY

... I... uh...

DOROTHY

(still crying)
I looked for you in my closet tonight...
(a little laugh)
It's crazy, I don't know where you came from but... I like you.

JEFFREY

That's not crazy... I like you too...

Dorothy looks up. They stare at each other for some time.

DOROTHY

I liked being with you last night.

JEFFREY

... same here...

There is a loud knocking on the door.

DOROTHY
(she starts to stagger)
Oh shit...

JEFFREY
(frightened)
Frank?...can you stand up?

DOROTHY
I'm alright...go hide...This won't take long...Be quiet.

Jeffrey gets in the closet and Dorothy closes the door.
She holds her head collecting her fragile self.
Dorothy goes to the door and opens it. It's the Man with the Yellow Sports Coat -- tonight he's wearing a purple sports coat and light blue double knit pants.
His eyes are glazed and his face is broken out in a sweat.

YELLOW MAN
Frank gone?

DOROTHY
Yeah... but get outa here. He's comin' back.

YELLOW MAN Bull...

DOROTHY
Alright, suit yourself.

YELLOW MAN
He's comin' back?... What for?

DOROTHY (shaking)
'Cause he's comin' back, that's what for.
Frank's got you really loaded tonight.

YELLOW MAN
(getting upset)
Yeah, maybe so... Frank's got me... and you... and really it's all thanks to Don... isn't it... remember that... Your husband was the one who started fucking my mind with drugs.

DOROTHY
Oh he forced you, huh?

YELLOW MAN

He's the reformed dealer though who wanted to turn himself in ... he's the one that caused Frank to come and Frank's fucking us real good... I just feel so horny... I'm supposed to be here watching you why can't I be here fucking you. Listen... I know his cock's the size of a pin — let me give you the real thing... let me wet my whistle, baby.

DOROTHY

(cool, but real mad)

No way... get out... I'm gonna tell Frank. I'm gonna tell him what you said.

YELLOW MAN

Okay, I'm goin'... You'll see... I'll get you.

Dorothy kicks the door after he closes it, then she chains it. Jeffrey comes out of the closet.

JEFFREY

(talking softly)

Nice guy... Who's he?

DOROTHY

Who's it, you mean.

SUDDENLY, Dorothy starts to shake and cry.

Jeffrey grabs her and shakes her and holds her tight to him. She starts sobbing again.

DOROTHY

(continuing)

Oh God... Don!!! Why can't I just die.

JEFFREY

(quietly, soothing her)

There you go again... stop saying that... You can make it.

DOROTHY

I can't... I can't. You think you know so much.

JEFFREY

Take it easy... What's goin' on anyway?... Why are you in so much trouble?

Dorothy is sobbing and Jeffrey is holding her. There is a long silence and she calms down.

Dorothy takes Jeffrey through the kitchen and out the back...

120 EXT. ROOFTOP - APARTMENT BUILDING - NIGHT

120

The storm is closer and the dark clouds move violently in front of a full moon. The wind continues to moan. They move to the roof top and Dorothy leads Jeffrey through the chimneys to the edge of the building. A very sad forlorn version of "Somewhere over the Rainbow" - creeps through the wind.

DOROTHY

(a she stares down)

Look...

JEFFREY

(turning to her quickly)

No.

DOROTHY

(continuing to look down, her eyes widening — she whispers)

Falling.... falling so low

JEFFREY

No... Please, Dorothy... Why are you in so much trouble?

He moves closer to her.

JEFFREY

(continuing)

Who is Don?

DOROTHY

(very crazy and angry)

Don?... Are you in with them?

JEFFREY

(whispering)

No. But you're in very big trouble.

DOROTHY

Why are you so interested? Why do you keep asking me?

JEFFREY

I came back to help you. You said do I let girls sneak into my house... You know where I live... if you need to... come to where I live... OK?

DOROTHY

Who are you? Maybe I'll need to... you like me, huh?

JEFFREY

Yes...

DOROTHY

(whispering)

... or do you just want me? I'm going to let you enter me now.

JEFFREY

No... I should go.

DOROTHY

Please... please stay.

She makes him kiss her... he really likes it. Once again, Jeffrey and Dorothy get VERY HOT. Dorothy and Jeffrey lie down on the roof. Dorothy cries out suddenly and bangs her head hard again and again against the roof.

JEFFREY

Why Dorothy?

We move very close to Jeffrey's ear as Dorothy's lips come up and whisper into it.

DOROTHY

Don? I have to make it hurt... I want there to be nothing again. Don!!!

(as she slams her head again and again)

She reaches up and clutches Jeffrey then pulls him down with a feverish kiss. Lightening cracks above them and the wind howls.

JEFFREY

Will you tell Mom when she gets home from the hospital that I've gone to dinner at Sandy Williams' house?

AUNT BARBARA

Okay honey... that sounds nice... Jeffrey... I think you've got termites in the house.

JEFFREY

Oh yeah?... Have you seen any?

AUNT BARBARA

I've seen a few.

JEFFREY

Well, I haven't seen any... I wouldn't worry about it... Look... I better go.

AUNT BARBARA

Okay honey.

Jeffrey leaves and Aunt Barbara moves about tapping on the walls. She moves into a dark area and taps. Something falls. She reaches down.

In EXTREME CLOSEUP we see a termite walking by her shoe on the thick carpet. Then in EXTREME CLOSEUP we see Aunt Barbara's fingers pinch the termite and bring it up in front of her thick glasses for a look. She looks at the termite, then looks back at the walls.

We GLIDE ALONG the dark walls of the house.

They start passing food around.

MIKE

Like I was saying... if you toss the ball like this, with your fingers just down here, that thing'll spin like a beauty... real straight.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(teasing him)

Yeah? Then how come nobody caught anything last week?...

MIKE

(not laughing)

'Cause we had a bad day.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

You play sports, Jeffrey?

JEFFREY

No...

MIKE

Looks like you'd make a good runner.

JEFFREY

Well...

MIKE

I mean, you don't exactly have the build for football... I mean... no offense.

Jeffrey looks around and sees Sandy looking at him. She then gives a stern look to Mike. Then Mike and Sandy both look at Jeffrey.

JEFFREY

(not offended)

No... you're right.

MIKE

I mean... some guys play anyway but they usually get slaughtered.

JEFFREY

Yeah, well I never wanted to get slaughtered much.

CONTINUED

MIKE

(not getting any humor)

Well, most guys don't. I mean that's the point. You all mind if I take my vitamins?

MRS. WILLIAMS

No, Mike... but there are vitamins in the food, you know.

Everyone laughs.

MIKE

Yeah, but I gotta supplement that... I gotta take a bunch of zinc too. The body is like a machine. EVERYTHING has got to stay in perfect tune for perfect health. That's what I'm interested in.

Sandy looks at Mike.

MIKE

Oh yeah... and a few other things.

Everyone laughs again.

SANDY

We've got some Heinekens.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Yeah... I like Bud myself.

SANDY

I'll get it. Mike, whatiya want?

MIKE

I guess another glass of water.

Sandy and Jeffrey share a look.

DISSOLVE TO:

124 INT. WILLIAMS' BASEMENT - NIGHT

124

Mike and Sandy are sitting on a couch in the basement. Jeffrey is sitting on a chair nearby. The television set is on.

MRS. WILLIAMS

(calling downstairs)

Who wants desert? It's blueberry pie... and ice cream.

Jeffrey and Sandy say "yes."

MIKE

None for me, thanks.

CONTINUED

Jeffrey looks over at Sandy. Mike sees this. There is more tension growing.

MIKE

(referring to T.V.)

What are we watchin' this junk for?-

SANDY

You can change it if you want to.

MIKE

I don't know why we have to watch T.V.

SANDY

Mike... We don't have to watch it... Come on.

Mrs. Williams comes downstairs carrying a tray with dessert.

MRS. WILLIAMS

Here you are... Would anyone like coffee?

JEFFREY

That sounds great!

MRS. WILLIAMS

Anyone else?... Alright Jeffrey, just a minute.

Mrs. Williams goes back upstairs. Jeffrey and Sandy start eating their desert. Sandy watches Jeffrey happily wolf down his pie. Mike stands up.

MIKE

I'll be right back.

He leaves as if he's going to go upstairs. Once around the corner he stops and listens to see what Jeffrey and Sandy will say to one another.

SANDY

Well, how did it go?... What happened?

JEFFREY

Well... I've found out some things... nothing really for certain... There are some strange people involved.

SANDY

What did you see?

JEFFREY

Well...

(looking around, feeling funny)

Maybe we should discuss this somewhere else... you know what I mean?

124 CONTINUED:

Just then, Mrs. Williams starts down with the coffee for Jeffrey. She sees Mike at the bottom of the stairs. This seems strange to her.

MRS. WILLIAMS

Mike?... Are you alright?

Mike starts upstairs.

MIKE

(mumbling)

Yes.

Downstairs, Jeffrey and Sandy hear that Mike was close by. Mrs. Williams and Mike pass on the stairs and Mrs. Williams enters the basement. She throws Sandy a concerned look. Just then, Mike calls downstairs.

MIKE

Sandy?... Could I talk to you a minute?

SANDY

(calling up)

Sure... just a sec...

(to Jeffrey)

Excuse me.

125 INT. WILLIAMS' LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

125*

Upstairs, Mike is by the front door.

MIKE

Come on out a minute, okay?

SANDY

Okay...

They leave.

125A INT. WILLIAMS' BASEMENT - NIGHT

125A*

Downstairs Mrs. Williams picks up some dishes.

MRS. WILLIAMS

Please excuse me a moment, Jeffrey, and I'll get to the dishes.

JEFFREY

Sure thing... please don't worry about me...
Can I help with the dishes?

126 INT. DETECTIVE WILLIAMS' STUDY - NIGHT

126

Jeffrey enters Detective Williams' study.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(continuing)

Take a look at these... These are the photos of the vacant lot where you found the ear. You might find them interesting.

Jeffrey begins going through the pictures. They are 8 x 10 black and white prints. Mostly they are pictures of weeds, but they look quite beautiful in an abstract way. As he goes through them...

JEFFREY

These are beautiful... How's the case coming?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Okay...

JEFFREY

Anything you can tell me?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

The criminals are winning.

JEFFREY

Is that why you say it's horrible?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Yes...

JEFFREY

I guess you've seen some bad things...

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Yes I have — so bad I wouldn't poison your mind by telling you...

JEFFREY

Why do you do it?

JEFFREY

Yeah... I get it.

Suddenly Jeffrey sees something in the black and white photos. A piece of cloth in the grass. Carefully he asks.

JEFFREY

What is this? What color is it?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

(leaning over to see)

Blue... It's Blue Velvet.

Sandy comes into her father's study looking very upset. Detective Williams puts the photos away.

SANDY

Can I use the car for a while?

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Sure. What's up?

SANDY

I want to buy Jeffrey a Dairy Queen.

JEFFREY

A Dairy Queen?

(he holds his stomach)

Oh yeah? Sure, that sounds great.

CUT TO:

127 INT. WILLIAMS CAR/NEIGHBORHOOD STREET - NIGHT

127

Jeffrey gets in and Sandy starts the car. She pulls out. They drive away.

JEFFREY

What's with Mike?

SANDY

He got a little jealous.

I'm sorry, I didn't...

SANDY

It's okay... Don't worry about it...

The car glides along.

You want a Dairy Queen?

JEFFREY

No way... I'm about to blow up.

128 INT. WILLIAMS CAR/CHURCH - NIGHT

128

Sandy laughs as she pulls the car curbside in a quiet street by a church. The church pipe-organ music drifts softly into the night.

SANDY

You want to tell me about it?

JEFFREY

... OK... It's a strange world, Sandy... this is what I have found out... What I think I have found out... Dorothy Vallens is married to a man named Don... they have a son... I think the son and the husband have been kidnapped by a man named Frank who has now cut off both of Don's ears. I think he is holding them to make her do things for him... I think she wants to die... the ears were for her a warning to stay alive... there is another man involved... I call him the "yellow man"... you saw his back the other day in the hall at her door... I don't know what he does but I think he's on drugs supplied by Frank... Frank is a very dangerous man...

SANDY

(quietly)

Wow... Should you tell my father?

JEFFREY

I don't see how I can... and I can't prove any of this... I got all this information... illegally... also it could get you in trouble.

SANDY

You saw a lot in one night...

JEFFREY

... Actually... I've been in twice,...

SANDY

(uneasy)

Twice... without her sensing anything?

CONTINUED

JEFFREY

(lying)

Yes...

SANDY

(pausing)

Did you see her undressed?

JEFFREY

Yeah... I mean... a little, ... you know.

SANDY

Yeah?

JEFFREY

(a searching, slight smile)

That doesn't bother you, does it?

SANDY

Who, me? Why should it?

JEFFREY

(seeing some jealousy and happy for it)

That's what I thought...

SANDY

You're sure right... It is a strange world...

JEFFREY

Why are there people like Frank... Why is there so much trouble in this world...?

SANDY

I don't know... I had a dream... in fact... the night I met you...

(she reflects silently on this before proceeding)

... in the dream the world was dark because there weren't any robins... you know, birds... robins...and in the dream the robins stood for love... and all of a sudden thousands of robins flew down and brought this blinding light of love... and it felt like that love would be the only thing that would make any difference... I guess... until the robins come there is trouble...

JEFFREY

Yeah I guess so...

(he turns to her)

You're a neat girl...

JEFFREY

I guess so... you want to help me watch Frank? ... I'm going to stake out Frank's place tomorrow... with a camera.

Sandy starts the car and pulls out into the street. They begin driving back.

129 INT. WILLIAMS CAR/NEIGHBORHOOD STREET - NIGHT

129

SANDY

No, silly - I'm still in school you know... but I'll meet you after school and you can tell me what you've learned. You better be careful, Jeffrey.

JEFFREY

I will. I'll pick you up on the same corner at three thirty-five, okay?

They pull up in front of Jeffrey's house.

SANDY

Okay... be careful.

JEFFREY

Okay, Sandy.

130 EXT. BEALMONT'S HOME - NIGHT

130

Jeffrey gets out of the car. He goes around to her side and looks down at her in the car. She looks very beautiful. He stands there for a moment.

JEFFREY

Can I give you a kiss good night?

SANDY

(pauses, trembling)

You better not, Jeffrey...

131 INT. BEALMONTS' LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

131

The house is very dark and quiet. Jeffrey finds a note by the one table light is on. The note is from his mother. It reads, "Jeffrey hope you enjoyed yourself. See you at breakfast. Love Mom." A postscript is written on the note by Aunt Barbara. "Jeffrey, honey, I found these. Love, Aunt Barbara." Jeffrey sees that Aunt Barbara has left him two dead termites. He picks one up and studies it. Again we see a huge CLOSEUP of a termite in the half-light. Jeffrey shakes his head in amusement.

132 INT. JEFFREY'S ROOM - NIGHT

132

Jeffrey paces nervously. He picks up the phone and mouthing the numbers he dials Dorothy's number. There is a "click" but no one speaks. Jeffrey instinctively speaks.

JEFFREY

Hello?

FRANK (telephone V.O.)

Speak to me Fucker.

Jeffrey hangs up immediately. He's scared.

JEFFREY

(to himself)

Stupid!! So stupid... now she might be in even more trouble with Frank... I hope not... I hope not... tomorrow I have to find out more about Frank.

133 INT. BEALMONTS' CAR/Front STREET - DAY

133

Jeffrey has a camera taped and rigged to the dashboard aimed at the front door of Frank Booth's apartment building. The camera is covered with a cardboard shoe box. Jeffrey is eating a sandwich which was wrapped in wax paper and is waiting and watching.

A LADY steps out of the building and begins walking down the steps. Jeffrey reaches over and removes the shoe box and quickly takes two pictures.

We see a MAN walk down the street and turn up the steps. Jeffrey shoots, but really only gets the back of the man.

As he looks up he sees Frank getting out of a car with another man... the Yellow Man. They head for Frank's building. Jeffrey hurriedly removes the shoe box and begins snapping pictures. They mount the steps and disappear within the old dark structure.

JEFFREY

Wow...

DISSOLVE TO:

135 INT. BEALMONTS' CAR/FRONT STREET - DAY

135

Jeffrey's watch — the hand — time lapses around to 3:00.

JEFFREY

(out loud to himself)

Fifteen more minutes.

Just then, he sees movement and takes the box off the camera. He starts shooting as TWO MEN come out the front door. It is the Yellow Man and a man who is very well dressed with wavy hair and a moustache. He carries an alligator-skin brief case FRANK HAS DISAPPEARED. Both are talking together and now laughing. Jeffrey takes five or six pictures and then he tries to cover the camera as they approach. The box falls. The Yellow Man looks, but Jeffrey gets the box back in time and pretends to be looking in the glove compartment.

The two men walk right by Jeffrey and get into the car behind him. Jeffrey decides to follow them. He waits a few seconds and starts off.

136 EXT. CITY STREET - DAY

136

JEFFREY

You gotta wait for me Sandy... I'm on a real roll.

He quickly takes a picture of the two of them on the staircase...

138 EXT. ALLEY - DAY

138

... then he goes down an alley in the direction they were looking. At the end of the alley he turns left and stops short.

139 EXT. COLD STORAGE COMPANY - DAY

139

He sees a crowd of people, an ambulance, and two police cars. He walks closer. Through the crowd he sees a broken window. Hanging in the window is a dead man. Blood is dripping out of a huge wound to the head.

On the sidewalk in front of the building a woman is lying in shock. Her legs have been brutally broken and are angled back toward her head in horrible positions. Jeffrey stands next to two black guys. Suddenly one of the police officers starts pushing everyone away. Jeffrey turns to them.

JEFFREY

What happened?

GUY #1

He was blown away man... can't you see?

GUY #2

That cracker was the biggest dealer in this section of this city brother... the police are going to find more drugs in there than you can believe... It's speedball heaven in there...

SANDY

You know, that cheese is practically all chemicals....

JEFFREY

That's what makes it so good... You wanta hear what I saw today?

SANDY

Shoot...

JEFFREY

Number one... I saw the Yellow Man go into Frank's building, laughing with Frank. Now... the only trouble is... what does that prove?

SANDY

(thinking)

Nothing really, but it's interesting... they know each other... they seem to like each other.

JEFFREY

Maybe. But I think the Yellow Man is on drugs. I think Frank supplies him.

SANDY

Oh yeah?

JEFFREY

Number two... I saw the Yellow Man come out. This time with a well-dressed man with an alligator briefcase. They drove down to this factory building and stood on a staircase looking at something in the distance... Number three... now get this... In the distance was a murder... a drug dealer shot to death and a woman with her legs broken...

SANDY

Jeffrey stands up and moves to her side of the booth. They stare at each other.

SANDY

Oh yeah?

Jeffrey leans over and kisses her gently. Sandy pulls away.

SANDY

Don't... please, Jeffrey.

Jeffrey looks at her for a moment.

JEFFREY

You worry about me really?

SANDY

Yes... is that so surprising?... Yeah I worry... a lot. I got you into this.

Jeffrey winds his way up the staircase of Dorothy's apartment building. He hesitates before crossing to Dorothy's door. He knocks on the door and Dorothy opens it.

DOROTHY

Come in.

JEFFREY

Hello...

144 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

144

Dorothy closes the door. She chains it.

They kiss. The kiss gets hotter. The feeling begins.

They move down the hall to the back bedroom. They've never made love there. As they hurriedly undress Jeffrey sees the pointed child's hat with the propeller. He picks it up and spins the propeller. It makes a bit of music. Dorothy shrieks as she lurches toward Jeffrey grabbing his hand, stopping him from turning the tiny propeller. She gains some control of herself. Jeffrey releases the hat into her hand.

DOROTHY

It used to make me laugh ...but...

JEFFREY

I'm sorry...maybe I better go Dorothy.

DOROTHY

Yes...Frank--

JEFFREY

Frank is coming?

DOROTHY

No...how could he?...Don't go...

You think I'm crazy, don't you?

I want you to stay.

(crying)

...don't hate me, [REDACTED]

JEFFREY

(very nervous)

I sure don't hate you...

DOROTHY

I'm not crazy...

(thinking)

I know the difference between right and wrong...

JEFFREY

That's good.

Jeffrey moves to get out of bed.

DOROTHY

(she poses)

Do you like my body?

JEFFREY

Sure I do...

She moves closer to him, towards his back touching it with her tongue. She gets down in a pose and holds it...

DOROTHY

I'm a statue...you can feel me...you can do anything you want.

Jeffrey's hands find her flesh and move about.

DISSOLVE TO:

Jeffrey and Dorothy are making love in her bed in almost total darkness.

DOROTHY

(dreamily)

What do you want to do?

JEFFREY

I'm doing it.

DOROTHY

Are you a bad boy?

JEFFREY

Whatiya mean?

DOROTHY

Do you want to do bad things?
(very dreamy) Anything...anything.

JEFFREY

(whispering hot)

What do you want?

DOROTHY

I want you to hurt me...

JEFFREY

No... I told you... I don't want to hurt you. I want to help you... I think I know some of what is happening to you... (she doesn't react)... Dorothy? Frank has your husband and son... Dorothy? Doesn't he? You have to do something Dorothy... go to the police.

DOROTHY

No police!!!...

(pushing herself back against the headboard; then frantic)

No police!!

Suddenly, Dorothy gets very odd. She turns into a little girl.

DOROTHY

You like to open me... don't you?

JEFFREY

Yes.

DOROTHY

(thinking with a grin)

What if I told Frank that you opened me?

For just one quiet moment we see the stairway to Dorothy's apartment. It is empty. Then back to Jeffrey and Dorothy.

JEFFREY

That wouldn't be too good, would it?

DOROTHY

Frank would open you.

JEFFREY

Okay... I know you've been scared... now you want to scare someone...

DOROTHY

(smiles very strangely)

Does that scare you?

JEFFREY

Shut up...

DOROTHY

Beeeee careful...

eerie gust of wind.

Look, snap out of it, will ya?

DOROTHY
Kiss me...

They kiss.

And sometimes you think you don't? Well, get away then!

She bolts up.

JEFFREY

Wait a minute... Wait... Whatiya want? For cryin' out loud!

DOROTHY

Just get outa my bed.

She hits out at Jeffrey and strikes him in the face. Jeffrey struggles with her to keep her from hitting him again but she breaks loose and slams out at his face again. He pushes her back hard and her head actually hits the wall. She smiles through the pain.

JEFFREY

Oh God... are you alright?

She falls on him and smothers him with kisses.

DOROTHY

See... see how you hurt me? Now... Open me... enter me.

Jeffrey moves on top of her in the darkness.

We move very close to Jeffrey's ear as Dorothy's lips come up and whisper into it.

DOROTHY

I love you Don with all my heart.

JEFFREY

No... it's not Don.

But he can't stop himself or her from making love.

DOROTHY

Come inside me. Oh yes, oh yes, oh yes.

(very frantic)

Oh yes, oh yes, oh yes.

The movement subsides. There is silence in the room, except for breathing.

JEFFREY

I didn't mean to hurt you.

DOROTHY
Shhhhhh... Now I have your disease.

JEFFREY
You... what?

DOROTHY
You put your disease in me... your semen... it's hot and full of disease.

JEFFREY
There's no disease, I can tell you.

DOROTHY
Men are crazy... then they put their craziness into me... then it makes me crazy... then they aren't so crazy for a while... then they put their craziness in me again...
(starts crying)
... it's burning me... but I love you... I do, I do... Did you know that? Did you know that I love you?

JEFFREY
(very apprehensive)
I'm glad you do...

DOROTHY
There's so much I want to tell you... I'm in so much darkness though with things moving... ~~there~~ there is darkness sucking me... It's kissing me and darkness is entering me... in every hole. It's opening me to a death.

JEFFREY
Dorothy... no!

DOROTHY
(whispering)
If I die, then they'll be free. It's getting late, isn't it? I can tell... it's a cold feeling when it's late... It's warm then it gets cold. Jeffrey... I feel it getting cold.

JEFFREY
You called me Jeffrey...

DOROTHY
I did...are you?

JEFFREY
Yes...

DOROTHY
Why are you here (Jeffrey gets on top of her again.) HMMMMMMMM!!!! Ok.

JEFFREY
No...not really...(they kiss - very hot) but also because I really want you to be alright.

Dorothy stops and looks at him - she holds his face. She starts to cry.

DOROTHY
You do...you really do.

She continues holding his face - looking in his eyes. crying openly. She pulls him down to her.

DOROTHY Jeffrey...Jeffrey...Jeffrey...

Jeffrey smiles.

JEFFREY
I guess I should go.

DOROTHY
I want you to stay with me.

JEFFREY
I think I better go...

146

INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

146

Later. Jeffrey is dressed and Dorothy comes out of the bathroom in her robe. She is combing her hair. One or two lights are on now. She looks at Jeffrey and smiles, brushes some of his hair back from his face.

DOROTHY
(continuing)
You're my special friend, aren't you?
(whispers)
I have you inside of me still...
(big smile)
It helps me... I need you...

Jeffrey doesn't know what to say. He starts walking toward the door with Dorothy beside him.

JEFFREY

(lying) I'll call you.

DOROTHY

Okay...soon? Do you think I'm too fat?

JEFFREY

What?

DOROTHY

I'm getting a little bit fat... I hate that.

JEFFREY

You look beautiful to me...

She pats her hips.

DOROTHY

Right in here... fat, fat, fat.

Dorothy takes the chain off the door and opens it. The hall is empty. There is some noise on the stairs. Suddenly, Frank and TWO FRIENDS of his come into view on the stairway.

JEFFREY

(to Dorothy)

Oh no.

DOROTHY

(her eyes glaze over - she's gone again.)

No...

(calling out to Frank)

Hi baby.

FRANK

Who's this fuck?

DOROTHY

He's a friend... from the neighborhood... we were just talking.

FRANK

(to Jeffrey)

From the neighborhood?

JEFFREY
(trembling bad - he sees Dorothy's eyes)
Yeah...

I don't want to go.

FRANK

Go where?

JEFFREY

On a ride.

FRANK

A ride?... Hell, that's a good idea... okay, let's go... Hey, let's go!

Frank grabs Jeffrey and pulls him along.

Frank and Dorothy are in the front seat. Jeffrey is sandwiched between two very dirty strange guys in the back. Frank is driving very fast and very crazy. Sitting next to him on the front seat is a police radio which periodically blares out police reports. At the lights, when they turn green, Frank lays rubber.

FRANK

Where you wanna go? I know!... We gotta see Ben... We gotta, right?

PAUL

(laughing)

Driving music plays.

Frank careens dangerously down various narrow streets, just barely making turns. The Ford bounces off several curbs. Dorothy occasionally steals a glance back at Jeffrey. She squeals out loud — sometimes with glee, mostly in fear.

Raymond and Paul laugh with Frank, yell out or light cigarettes.

FRANK

What's the matter? Give 'em back. They're just a little red, that's all... let me feel 'em again. Come here...

Frank pulls her over and starts to pinch her again. It really hurts her and she is frightened and in pain.

JEFFREY
Hey... leave her alone.

Frank pretends not to hear Jeffrey and pinches Dorothy's breasts real hard. She stifles a scream. Jeffrey gets mad. He hits Frank hard in the face. Everyone is Y. deadly silent as Frank turns to Jeffrey. Frank stares at Jeffrey.

FRANK
NEXT! ... out of the car fuck. HELP HIM

Frank gets out and presses his face against the rear window. His distorted face is hideous. He opens the back door. Raymond and Paul grab Jeffrey and pull him out of the car. The Greasy Girl laughs nervously.

DOROTHY

Frank... he didn't mean it. Leave him alone... come on... He didn't mean it...

FRANK

Shut up... Gimme your lipstick...
(takes gas)
... Hey, pretty, pretty...

Dorothy doesn't move fast enough so Frank dumps her whole purse out on the front seat and grabs the lipstick and a flashlight. He puts lipstick heavy onto his lips.

While Raymond and Paul hold Jeffrey, Frank kisses Jeffrey all over the mouth. Jeffrey tries to hit Frank and pull away, But Raymond and Paul have a hold of him. Jeffrey looks very strange with these big blotches of red lipstick on his face and mouth.

DOROTHY

LEAVE HIM ALONE!! FRANK!!

Frank slams the front door shut to muffle Dorothy. He grabs Jeffrey and presses his frightened face up against the front window. Then, the back window. Then, he flops Jeffrey up on the hood with Paul's help and presses Jeffrey's face against the rear window. Inside the car, this show is crazy and scary. Then, Frank takes Jeffrey over to the side of the car again.

FRANK

You're fuckin' lucky to be alive. ... LOOK AT ME!

Raymond pulls Jeffrey's face back so he's looking at Frank. Dorothy and the Greasy Girl watch in terror.

He shows him the picture of just Frank and studies Detective Williams' face as he sees it.

JEFFREY

(continuing)

This is Frank Booth... His address is on the back of the photo... He, in my opinion, is very sick and dangerous. This photo here is of Frank with another man as they went into Frank's apartment.

Jeffrey casually hands the photo over and watches Detective Williams' face extra carefully. Detective Williams doesn't flinch, yet his eyes slowly glide upwards to meet Jeffrey's.

JEFFREY

And that man came out with a third man - this well-dressed guy... here's that photo... I think a girl named Dorothy Vallens is in trouble with these people. I think Frank has taken her husband and her son...

JEFFREY (cont'd)

I have no hard proof of any of this. Her address is also on the photos... I think these people are involved with drugs... and murder. I think Frank is killing drug dealers and...

(he decides not to tell Detective Williams everything)

... and somehow Frank is getting all their drugs. I had to tell you I got slightly more involved in this than you wanted me to, but it's over now for sure. ... I had to tell you about these things in case it could help.

MIKE

(out of the car; very drunk)

Hey come here, you stole my girl, you bastard. I'm gonna kick your ass, right in front of your stupid house.

SANDY

... Stop it Mike.

MIKE

(to Sandy)

You shut up... nobody's talkin' to you. Hey who's that Jeffrey? Your mother?

Everyone turns and looks. Slowly out of the darkness comes a nude woman. It is Dorothy. She is totally in shock, bloody saliva is dripping from her mouth. She is bloody, swollen and bruised all over. She is totally different, drained of her sexuality. She has been ravaged.

JEFFREY

Dorothy! ... Dorothy!

SANDY

Dorothy Vallens?

JEFFREY

Yes...

He jumps out of the car, gets a hold of her and helps her back. Mike comes after him.

MIKE

(going for Jeffrey)

Hey, you ivy league shit... COME HERE!

JEFFREY

(pushing Mike off)

Later Mike... I gotta take care of someone who's hurt here, in case you haven't noticed...

SANDY

Mike, go home...

Mike's friends are dazed, watching Dorothy staggering beside Jeffrey. Mike steps back as Jeffrey puts Dorothy in the car. Jeffrey stands back up and glances at Mike.

MIKE

(dull, very drunk)

Hey, I'm sorry... Hey.

Jeffrey gets into the car.

JEFFREY

Yeah... okay, Mike.

Jeffrey shuts the door. Dorothy is sandwiched between him and Sandy in the front seat.

SANDY

Take her to my house... My dad can get an ambulance faster than anyone. Do you have anything to put around her?

JEFFREY

(starts the car)

No... Is Detective Gordon going to be at your house?

SANDY

Probably not... no... Why?

JEFFREY

OK. Let's get her over to your father's.

SANDY

(looking quickly from Dorothy to Jeffrey)

Right. Watch out for Mike, there.

Mike and his friends are getting in Mike's car. Mike is trying to start the engine. He does and clumsily throws the car in reverse. He screeches out and screeches to a stop. Then he guns away forward and shoots crazily down the road.

JEFFREY

Here we go.

They drive off.

210 INT. STAIRWAY - APARTMENT BUILDING - NIGHT

Jeffrey slowly climbs the stairs. His shoes squashing the carpet make small crushing sounds as he climbs higher into the building.

He arrives at the Seventh Floor and stops. A high-pitched whine can be heard faintly. It gets louder as Jeffrey crosses to Dorothy's apartment door. He gets his key out and inserts it. Turns it. With a loud click the door swings open and the high whine becomes piercing. He sees something and jumps back.

211

INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

211

It is Detective Gordon, the Yellow Man, standing in the center of the room.

FLASHBACK

He plays the look into the apartment again in his mind and again.

CLOSER ON DETECTIVE GORDON

Something is wrong with him. He is bleeding from the head. He stands almost motionless... in shock.

Jeffrey peers into the room again. He enters carefully and lets the door close behind him. He very cautiously moves forward into the room. Slowly he moves closer to a hideous sight. Standing in the middle of Dorothy's apartment is T.R. Gordon, the Yellow Man. He is in an extreme state of shock. He is bleeding badly from a huge wound at the top left of his head. His eyes focused on something only his twisted inner mind sees. Sitting in one of Dorothy's chairs is a dead man with no ears... only half-healed bloody wounds at each side of his head. A bullet hole in the center of his forehead. The T.V. is crushed in but it is turned on and it is the television that produces the high electrical whine. ~~Jeffrey moves forward again and kicks the television cord out of the wall. The high whine stops instantly. Silence except for the Yellow Man's labored breathing.~~ Jeffrey moves forward again and kicks the television cord out of the wall. The high whine stops instantly. Silence except for the Yellow Man's labored breathing.

Suddenly there is a loud "radio voice" coming from the Yellow Man's police radio which is "turned on" in his jacket pocket. Jeffrey's heart leaps and just as suddenly the Yellow Man throws his arms out wildly knocking a floor lamp to the ground and crushing out its light. Jeffrey's heart goes wild at this sight and he jumps back but the Yellow Man is silent and motionless again. The radio talks again.

RADIO VOICE #1

Get back and stay down...

RADIO VOICE #2

Music... LOVE LETTERS STRAIGHT FROM MY HEART... begins to play. Jeffrey watches the Yellow Man and listens to the radio.

CUT TO:

212 EXT. FRONT STREET - NIGHT

212

The real scene is before us. Police cars line the street along with a huge fire truck and several ambulances. Special police marksmen are crouched behind cars and behind a stone wall opposite Frank's building. Screams are heard from within and police radios blare. Shots are being fired into a black window. Once in a while a shot is returned. Two policemen are dead and one is being loaded onto an ambulance.

POLICEMAN #1

He hasn't fired a shot for six minutes... maybe we got him... get on the radio... get Detective Williams... ask him if we can rush the son of a bitch.

A policeman runs off... more shots are fired into the building but none are returned. The policeman comes running back.

POLICEMAN #2

It's in the works already... we're in there... they're goin' down the back stairs now... It won't be long... and they'll have us rush 'em from here... one whistle and we go...

Suddenly there is a long barrage of gunfire into Frank's apartment. Then a loud whistle.

POLICEMAN #1

That's it... let's go...

Police race across the street to Frank's building.

213 INT. FRANK'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

213

Police kick the door in and rush into the apartment. It's empty except for a large dog which has been shot. The dog growls and cowers back in a corner. Every now and then it limps on bloody legs back and forth.

214 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

214

Jeffrey hears the radio. He hears the policemen talking at Frank's place. He hears that Frank is gone. He decides to leave Dorothy's apartment.

JEFFREY

(speaking to T.R. Gordon who doesn't hear him because he's almost dead)

I'm leaving now... I'll let them find you all on their own... find all this horror on their own.

(whispers)

Good bye.

He goes out and closes the door.

215 INT. STAIRWAY - APARTMENT BUILDING - NIGHT

215

The door clicks shut. He makes his way quietly down the hall to the stairway... thinking. He starts down the stairs.

JEFFREY

So... Frank escaped...

He rounds the corner on a landing on the stairway and goes down another floor... and another. At the next landing, something out the window catches his eye. He notices a man get out of a car. He recognizes the man. It is the well-dressed man he saw with the alligator brief case. Jeffrey watches the man come toward Dorothy's building. Then his eye goes back to the man's car. It is Frank's car. He notices the man is carrying a police radio.

JEFFREY

(to himself)

Frank's car... Is this man a cop? He has a radio!... So did Frank though and he's no cop... that's for sure... and he's driving Frank's car... who is he?

The man enters the building at the front entrance directly below Jeffrey.

Jeffrey starts climbing back up the stairs... thinking faster.

CLOSEUP on well-dressed man's face... It is Frank, underneath a very good disguise.

Jeffrey has trouble getting the key out of his pocket. He fumbles with it and it drops to the floor.

Frank climbs the stairs.

Finally the key goes in and Jeffrey frantically opens the door. He rushes into the room.

220 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

220

The horror and strangeness of the scene within strikes him again. He rushes to the Yellow Man and takes the police radio out of his pocket. He runs into the back of the apartment - to the back bedroom where he crouches down behind a double bed.

222 INT. DOROTHY'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

Jeffrey drops the radio under the bed and runs back to the living room. He leaps safely into the closet just as Frank opens the apartment door and enters. Jeffrey freezes with fear in the darkness of the closet. Frank is smiling.

FRANK

(calling pleasantly in the direction of the back bedroom)

Hey neighbor... shit for brains... You forgot I have a police radio... I know where your cute little butt is hiding... Here I come. Ready or not!

He starts down the hall to the back bedroom. The police radio which Jeffrey planted under the bed and Frank's radio both start broadcasting. Frank turns his radio off - now only the one under the bed plays.

FRANK

Hey fuck... I can hear your radio!... Hey you stupid fuck... you got about a second to live.

DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

Not yet.

JEFFREY

Oh my God...Is her son Ok?

FBI MAN

We're looking for him...In your opinion, why did Frank kidnap Dorothy's son and husband?

JEFFREY

He became obsessed with her. She hated him... He had to have her. He kidnapped them to control her... to make her do things. Then she wanted to commit suicide so he started cutting off ears as a warning to her to stay alive. I'm not kidding. Frank loved blue... blue velvet. He had to have Dorothy cause her whole life was blue.

FADE TO BLACK — DARKNESS

225 EXT. BEALMONTS' BACK YARD - DAY

225

A huge low roaring sound comes in.

SLOWLY WE COME UP OUT OF A HUGE DARK HOLE. We see we are rising out of an ear but still among the crevices. They look enormous. We move up and float above the ear and traverse across a cheek to an eye. Jeffrey's eye. His face is bathed in light.

Jeffrey opens his eyes. He looks around confused for a moment. He sees Sandy.

JEFFREY

Okay...I'll be right in.

Sandy goes back inside. Suddenly, a big red ROBIN chirps loudly above. Jeffrey looks up at it sitting in the cherry tree. The Robin and Jeffrey seems to exchange a special look.

Jeffrey smiles up at the fat bird.

He gets off the lawn chair and walks away from us toward the back door of the house. As he passes his father and Detective Williams:

JEFFREY

How ya doin' Dad?

MR. BEAUMONT

Blue Velvet dissolves in and takes over the image.
